

Byron Area Libraries – What's on:
March 2020

*Indicates booking is required

Byron Bay Library:

Thursday March 5 – 5pm-6.30pm

Storyboard teen writers masterclass

This 5-week course is offered to teens aged 13-17 years and is presented by writers Siboney Duff & Melaina Feranda.

Participants will explore a range of different writing forms and genres and hone their skills over the term. Bookings via

Storyboard website:

<https://byronwritersfestival.com/storyboard/masterclass/#>

Thursday March 5 – 5pm

Book launch and Poetry Reading

Renowned local poet David Hallett will launch his new poetry anthology “Out of the blue” with a special reading in the Library.

Friday March 20 – 10.30am

Finance Seminar: Understanding superannuation

This talk is presented by the Department of Human Services. It covers how superannuation works, who can contribute, accumulations and options within funds and gaining access to superannuation.

Bookings via the Department: Ph 13 63 57

email: fis.seminar.bookings@humanservices.gov.au

