

Byron Area Libraries – What's on in August 2019

*Indicates bookings required

BYRON BAY LIBRARY:

Saturday August 3

Book via www.byronwritersfestival.com

To attend The John West Youth Poetry Prize at 3.30pm and the Australian Poetry Slam (Byron Heat) from 5.30pm.

Friday August 9 10.30am

Understanding retirement income streams

The first of our free monthly financial information seminars presented by the Commonwealth Department of Human Services.

Friday August 16 12.00pm

Science Week Presentation: The NSW Shark Management Strategy

A fascinating presentation by the NSW Department of Primary Industries. Find out what the strategy is, how it works, and how it impacts you and the marine environment.

August 17-23

Children's Book Week 2019

The Library will be displaying books shortlisted by the Children's Book Council of Australia for Special merit. Pre-schoolers can join us for a special Story Time session featuring shortlisted books on Tuesday 20 August at 10.30am.